Marquis Hall

The University of Saskatchewan Culinary Services operates under the university's permanent institutional liquor license and is governed by the regulations and procedures established by provincial legislation, and the Board of Governors of the University of Saskatchewan.

For this reason, the nature of your organization and event will determine the type of service we can provide. Arrangements for alcohol service are required a minimum of 21 business days prior to your event to ensure the availability of product for your event.

BAR PRICES (INCLUDES TAX)

6.50	Highballs
6.50	Domestic beer
7.50	Wine
7.50	Import beer
8	Premium liquor

CASH BAR SERVICES

Guests purchase individual drinks with cash. Host tickets can be made available to the convener. All returned tickets will be charged to the group's master account.

SUBSIDIZED BAR SERVICES

The most common bar is called a subsidy bar, where the hosts subsidize a portion of the drink costs. Guests pay a reduced price on drinks and the hosts pay the remainder of the drink price.

HOST BAR SERVICES

The client will be invoiced for all of the guest's drinks.

For all types of bars, the groups are required to use the trained University of Saskatchewan bartenders. A bartender charge will apply only if the group does not reach the minimum revenue (before taxes) of $500 for each bar. Bartenders are $30 per hour for a minimum of five hours. If the bar minimum of $500 is met, the bartender fee is complimentary. We require one bartender per 75 people in attendance.

Please note that SLGA regulations do not allow any homemade alcoholic products to be served. Food must be made available at all events with liquor service, and no beverages may leave the premises.

Menus

Our menus include a variety of buffets and table-served meals to accommodate all groups. Only one menu may be selected per function. However, medical dietary and/or children's menus can be made available provided the request is received at least five business days prior to the event. All menu and set-up requirements must be discussed with Culinary Services one month prior to the event date.

Food allergens/meal restrictions

While Culinary Services does not have gluten-free or allergen-free kitchens and serving lines, we take every precaution to check ingredient information and to ensure that cross contamination of ingredients does not occur. Ingredients and nutritional content may vary. Because manufacturers may change their product formulation or consistency without our knowledge and product availability may fluctuate, we cannot completely guarantee products are gluten or allergen free.

It is the responsibility of the customer with food allergies or other specified nutrition concerns to make the final judgment on whether or not to question the ingredients of a food item or to choose to eat the foods selected. Guests are encouraged to consider information provided, to their own satisfaction, in light of their own individual needs and requirements

Prices

Menu prices quoted are subject to change. Menu prices are guaranteed one month prior to the event date

Guaranteed attendance

To ensure that your entire party will be looked after, we ask that you guarantee the number of guests no later than five business days prior to your event. The guaranteed number of guests given five days prior or your actual attendance number, whichever is greater, will be used for billing. Culinary Services understands that attendance can be unpredictable and we are always prepared to serve 5% over your guaranteed number to provide for unexpected guests.

Function room assignment

A more suitable function room may be assigned to your group should the number of guests and/or set-up requirements change. Room rental will be charged accordingly.

Liquor

The facility is governed by provincial liquor laws and all applicable guidelines must be met. All liquor served in the facility is to be provided by the University of Saskatchewan, Culinary Services (this includes all beer, spirits and wine), therefore no additional corkage charges will apply.

Special services

We will be happy to assist you in developing special requests including, but not limited to, reserved seating arrangements, floor plans, registration tables, arranging coat checks, providing contact information for parking, ivy wall rentals, etc.

Start and finish times

Start and finish times of all functions are to be strictly adhered to. The space is only booked for the time indicated. Set-up and dismantling times are to be specified at the time of booking. Decorating time is guaranteed one week prior to the event unless otherwise arranged with Culinary Services.

Method of payment

For all private and social functions, an initial non-refundable deposit of 20% is due at time of booking, followed by advance payment equal to 40% of the estimated charges due 30 days prior to the start of the event. The remaining final estimated charges are due three days prior to your event, mailed or delivered to the University of Saskatchewan, Marquis Hall, 97 Campus Drive, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, S7N 4L3. A credit card is required to be left on file for any remaining incidental charges.

Cancellation policy

In the event of cancellation, the customer is subject to a charge. Refer to your contract and cancellation clauses.

Outside food and beverages

Due to city and provincial health regulations, the University of Saskatchewan, Culinary Services does not allow any outside food or beverages to be brought in, with the exception of wedding cakes. For the same reason, food provided by the University of Saskatchewan, Culinary Services is not allowed off premise.

Function room set up

The Culinary Services is pleased to supply the following standard setup for all events: white table linens and choice of green, black or white napkins, podium and PA system, and table skirting for the display table, registration table and DJ tables. Table stands and table numbers are also available upon request. If the group requires a stage the event specialist can arrange this. The full charge for the rental will be reflected on the final statement, and prices are available upon request.

Please note that 30 days notice is required for multiple choice entree's.

Decorations

Decorating must be discussed with your event specialist during your detail meeting. Decorating policy allows for items to be hung on the wall with sticky tack only; no pins, staples, tape or nails. Any replacement or repair cost resulting from damages to university property during the function will be charged to the client.

If you are using the services of a professional decorator, please advise them of our decoration policy as you will be responsible for any damage. Culinary Services must be notified of any materials or rental items being used during your function.

Any materials or rentals are subject to prior arrangements and space availability. The university will not be liable for these items. Guests must remove all decorations, gifts and personal items at the end of the function.

Decorating will be accommodated based on availability and determined one week prior to the event.

Damages

The group is responsible for the behaviour of their guests during the event. The group will be financially responsible for any damages to the University of Saskatchewan that the group or any member of the group created.

Security

The University of Saskatchewan does not assume liability or responsibility for damage or loss of personal property or equipment left in the function room. Additional security services can be arranged.

Storage

University of Saskatchewan, Culinary Services is NOT responsible for damages to, or loss of, any articles left in the rooms or buildings prior to, during or following any function by the customer or any guests.

Outside contractors

We offer most services necessary for a successful meeting, however, if the client would like to use the services of third party providers, including any companies, firms, agencies, individuals and/or groups hired by or on behalf of the client, the client is required to obtain the prior written approval of the university.

Pick up of items

All decorations and rentals must be removed from the property at the conclusion of the event unless arranged prior to the event with the event specialist.

SOCAN/ReSound fees

All live or recorded music is subject to SOCAN copyright charges. Actual charges are based on the room capacity seated and standing plus GST. For more information please see socan.ca.

All live or recorded music is also subject to ReSound fees. Actual charges are based on the room capacity seated and standing plus GST. For more information please see resound.ca/en/index.htm.

Smoking

Marquis Hall is a smoke-free facility. If the group requires a smoking area for the event they may use any area that is a minimum of 10 meters from any entrance door. Ashtrays are provided outside of Marquis Hall.

Audio/visual

The University of Saskatchewan, Culinary Services will provide one complimentary podium with microphone for your function. All other equipment requirements can be reserved through ICT directly. Rental fees apply to equipment.

Gratuities

Culinary Services does not accept gratuities or service charges.

Tax

All food and beverage are subject to GST and PST. Taxes are applied to the balance of your bill. However, if billing to a university department CFOPAL, PST is not typically applicable.

Thank you for choosing Marquis Hall
for your event.
